REPORT ON COMPERING

On 20th November 2024, the department of English hosted Compering competition. In this regard, Students who are interested in Compering Competition were selected and given enough time to practice. They were asked to prepare anchoring script and to be prepared for the competition on the scheduled date. Reading teaches you new words and perspectives. It helps strengthen language and sharpens sentence structure. It gives you a better command over the language. All of these are critical to being a good speaker.

As a result, the department of English decided to host Compering competition, a reading activity. Compering competition is more than a reading skill. As it is said that LSRW are central to achieving an effective communication skills. Reading a book with ease and effectiveness is somewhat difficult to many. To improve abilities of reading skills, this competition has been devised. Compering competition was intended to enhance language skills as well as reading skills. A person who comperes or anchors the show is called an anchor or comper. The role of an anchor is to give the audience an idea of the program ahead and keep them engaged and aware of the next program. An anchor should exhibit spontaneity, originality, and genuineness

Objectives Compering or Anchoring amidst the public develops the following qualities of students.

- Language fluency
- Confidence, Right body language, Presence of mind, organising skills.
- Ability to deal with the technicians, event organizers, and guest speakers.
- Organizing skills.

Conclusion: Students, who participated and demonstrated their abilities in reading skills, felt very happy with regard to Compering competition. They learnt much experience that how to read with more ease and effectiveness an anchoring script among the public. Students that were not selected were also happy concerning the competition.
