Outcomes:

- Improved Communication Skills – Students developed better fluency and confidence in speaking and writing skills.
- Enhanced Presentation Abilities – Learners gained practical experience in delivering presentation and expressing ideas clearly.
- Resume and Interview Readiness – The course helped students build effective resumes and prepare for job interviews through mock sessions.
- Group Discussion Participation – Students became more comfortable participating in group discussions, expressing opinions and listening actively.
- Professional Email and Report Writing skills – The course enabled students to write formal emails and reports effectively.
- Increased Confidence in Academic and Professional Settings – Overall, students felt more confident using English in academic and workplace contexts.
- Career Readiness– The training served as a foundation for placement preparation.

Challenges:

- Varied Language Proficiency Levels – Students had different levels of English fluency, making it challenging to maintain a uniform pace.
- Lack of Confidence in Speaking – Many students were hesitant or nervous while speaking English in front of others.
- Limited Participation in Group Activities – Some students were reluctant to participate in discussions and role plays initially.
- Fear of Making Mistakes – Students were often afraid of being judged for grammatical or pronunciation errors, which affected their active involvement.
- Stage Fear During Presentations – Face to face presentation activities led to nervousness and stage fear in some students.
